

The InfoAg Conference

July 29-31, 2014 • St. Louis Union Station, St. Louis, Missouri

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Since 1995, InfoAg has been the leading event in precision agriculture. This popular national/international edition of the Information Agriculture Conference will present a wide range of educational and networking opportunities for anyone interested in site-specific techniques and technology.

Sponsorship Benefits:

- ✓ Increased visibility with all participants
- ✓ Acknowledgement in official program
- ✓ Conference signage
- ✓ Listing on conference website

The InfoAg 2014 Conference will be held July 29-31, 2014 at St. Louis Union Station, St. Louis, Missouri. It will be an attractive location for participants from all over the world. The International Plant Nutrition Institute and the CropLife Media Group have partnered to organize an outstanding conference that will attract agricultural clients and companies from around the world. We would like to invite your company to join the team as a sponsor for the conference. Your support helps reduce the costs of the conference for attendees, and gets added publicity and recognition for your company.

Platinum, Gold, and Silver sponsorships include exhibit space!
